

Vs. 16: Both those with and _____ the law will be judged _____
There will be no excuses on that day

Application

Are you a _____? Do you judge those around you while excusing your own sin?

God's judgment is not based on what we do but who He is. The only reason we don't get it is Jesus, not because of anything we have done.

There is no valid excuse for someone who doesn't come to Jesus.
God has _____ Himself to everyone in some way.

When in Romans Part 2 - "May I be Excused?"

Review/Intro

Do you support the _____ of the truth? Do you focus on symptoms instead of problem: not acknowledging God?

The treatment for the problem is the " _____ ", the gospel.

This next passage is all about _____ and hypocrisy.

Romans 2:1-16

The church had become almost exclusively _____ after Emperor Claudius expelled the Jews in the 40's A.D.

Jews return after Claudius' death to find their church under Gentile control. Since the Jews are the "chosen people" and follow the law, they look down on the Gentiles and have an attitude of spiritual superiority.

This passage can be applied to any _____ and judging that we engage in.

"Excuse Me!"

It is human nature to _____ - those who are "more sinful" than us.

We like to pick on the culture and make ourselves look good.

We are not as bad as " _____ ".

When I judge someone else I show my understanding of _____ and wrong, but this _____ me as well.

I need to understand that I sin too, even if it's in more

" _____ " ways

Vs. 2: It's right for God to judge sin.

No different _____ for different people

Vs. 3: Judgment can't be escaped

I may judge someone else but I'm still _____!

Vs. 4: Taking God's patience for granted is foolish: He's been so _____ to us!

Vs. 5: Rejecting God by judging others

" _____ " judgment.

Impartial Judge

Sometimes we assume that God is for " _____ " and against

" _____ ". He must be on _____, because we are right!

God is not on your side or my side; He is on _____ side!

God judges by one standard: _____.

Vs. 7: Someone who knows Jesus has had that _____ dealt with.

Vs. 8: For someone who doesn't know Jesus, even their _____ count as nothing.

We are not God's _____; we all deserve God's judgment. The only difference between us and the world is that we have responded to the gospel!

We are all _____ by God's ultimate standard: His truth.

As believers we don't receive God's judgment, but that doesn't mean we don't _____ it!

No Excuses

There is equal opportunity for all to repent!

Vs. 12:

Those who don't have God's Word will be judged by the _____ He did give them!

Those with the law will be judged by how they _____ it.

Vs. 13:

Doesn't matter if you know God's law if you don't
_____.

"Doers of the law": nobody can claim this (Gal.
3:11)

Jesus is the only way you can _____ God's law.

Vs. 14: People have an _____ sense of right and wrong

Vs. 15: The "work of the law" is written on their hearts

The work of the law is to _____ what is right and wrong and our need for a savior.

_____ does this, mirrors God's law.

accuses you of sin or _____ you when you do right.

Nobody is left without a _____ because everyone has a conscience